Louisiana Hunting Heritage Program

MENTOR & SPONSOR QUESTIONAIRE

Hunting is an important part of Louisiana's heritage, culture and wildlife conservation efforts. It is a legacy that we wish to pass on to future generations. Our mission is to provide an opportunity for individuals with an interest in hunting to experience and learn about hunting. Ultimately, our goal is to give participants the confidence and skills to independently participate in hunting and associated activities

To become an adult volunteer you must be willing to:

- Be a role model in all aspects of hunting and shooting sports, safety, ethics, values, good citizenship, and wildlife conservation.
- Host and sponsor selected apprentice hunters.
- If your apprentice is a minor, allow the parents to accompany their son or daughter on selected events.
- Provide transportation if necessary to those apprentices who may need assistance in attending activities.
- Provide assistance to your apprentice in hunting gear and fishing equipment selection and ensure they have the proper training on usage prior to participating in hunting, shooting sports or fishing activities.
- Conduct a hunting safety refresher discussion with all of the members of your hunt club prior to all hunting activities involving your apprentice.
- Hunt safely and use safe hunting equipment.

Mentors are covered by the state's liability insurance for LHHP activities throughout the year. This covers the mentor - apprentice pair for up to five years and is only provided for activities within the State of Louisiana. Workers Compensation liability is not be included.
