SUBJECT: Houseboat Mooring Lotteries on Atchafalaya Delta Wildlife Management Area

Please be aware that the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries (LDWF) will be offering houseboat mooring sites via lottery on Atchafalaya Delta Wildlife Management Area (ADWMA) for the majority of the upcoming hunting season. All applications must now be completed and submitted through LDWF's on-line lottery system at www.louisianaoutdoors.com. Paper applications are no longer accepted. Applications can be accessed by logging into or creating an account at www.louisianaoutdoors.com and selecting the Lotteries tile/tab.

Once logged in and on the Lotteries page, customers can get to the houseboat mooring lottery applications (when available) under the Houseboat tab at the top of the page. Make sure you review the application instructions at this site thoroughly before submitting an application. Applications and other required information must be completed and submitted by the deadline indicated on the application instructions.

A $5.00 administrative fee (plus applicable transaction fee) will be charged to each applicant. These fees are non-refundable. Successful applicants will also be required to pay non-refundable mooring fees (plus applicable transaction fees) within a limited time from notification.

If you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact LDWF for more information.
