

Where does Baton Rouge get its drinking water?

What is the Southern Hills Aquifer?

Tell me about saltwater intrusion!

How do we manage our water resources?

Water-Wise in BR

An Educational Workshop for Middle School and High School Teachers of Physical, Earth, and Environmental Science

When: Friday, Feb. 1, 2013, 8:00am–3:00pm

Where: Capitol Park Museum, 660 N. 4th St., downtown Baton Rouge

Curriculum sessions, field tours, box lunch, NO COST!

YOU WILL:

- Become more knowledgeable about Baton Rouge's groundwater issues
- Be able to immediately translate workshop curriculum into the classroom
- Earn continuing education hours
- Get a head-start on upcoming science content standard changes
- Receive a classroom poster, lesson plan Power Points, and curriculum guide

TO REGISTER:

Call, fax or e-mail your name, contact information, school affiliation, and types of classes taught to:

Matthew Reonas
La. Office of Conservation
Phone: (225) 342-1496
Fax: (225) 242-3608
matthew.reonas@la.gov

You'll receive a confirmation e-mail within 24 hours and a follow-up e-mail the week of the program.